THE 1951 PAC SAC

Alan F. Plummer

This, the 1951 PaC SaC, is dedicated to Alan Plummer, who was graduated from Presbyterian College in June, 1950 and who was killed in action in Korea July 24, 1950 while serving in the United States Army.

It is dedicated with an acute sense of loss, for he was one of us, and with humility and gratitude.

Thus, in dedicating it to him, it is, in a manner, also dedicated to each of us—to ourselves, the Presbyterian College student body, as we begin the job which was his and will be our own in the years ahead, that of rebuilding a world in peace, tolerance, and brotherly love.

PRESIDENT

President

Dr. Brown, having served Presbyterian College for a quarter century as teacher, dean, and president, has been a source of inspiration and guidance to all PC's since coming to Presbyterian. Under his leadership and direction, Presbyterian has progressed spiritually, scholastically, and athletically. Certainly his services to the college merit the highest praise of those who know him and Presbyterian.

STUDENT COUNCIL, composed of eleven duly elected members from the student body, proved its mettle as both a governing board and voice of the students this year under the able leadership of President Gus H. Watt.

The Council carried out its duties to enforce the Honor System and the Constitution fearlessly and courageously. In so doing, it won the respect of fellow students and faculty members alike.

Enforcing the rules set up by the students to govern themselves was not enough for the Council. The Council members, sitting as a legislative as well as judiciary body, gained new privileges and soothed the needs of the students in several fashions.

AS GOVERNING BOARD of all student Christian activities, the Student Christian Association Cabinet played a vital role in student life again this year.

Under the direction of President David Neville, the Cabinet made giant strides in the promotion of mental, physical, social, and spiritual development among the student body. Much credit is also attributed to President Mike Cheatham and his Freshman SCA Cabinet, who ably assisted the members of the Senior Cabinet.

Among the many activities sponsored this year by the SCA were vesper services, dormitory discussions, intramural sports and awards, chapel services, deputation teams, the annual Christmas party and songfest, and Religious Emphasis Week—the highlight of the college year.

The PaC SaC

YEAR AFTER YEAR, since 1914 when it was first published, the PaC SaC has sought to present for the student body of Presbyterian College a pictorial review of the year's activities on the campus.

In this thirty-fifth volume, the members of the staff hope the PaC SaC has presented a complete coverage of campus life in a pleasing and picturesque manner.

The editor commends every member of the staff for his prompt cooperation, without which this book would not have been possible. Also much credit is due to the able guidance of Ben Hay Hammet, annual advisor, and William and Hugh Jacobs, of Jacobs Brothers Publishing Company. A special thanks to William Jacobs for his art work and creation of Mr. PC is also a "must" from the PaC SaC staff.

To all who helped we say, "Thanks." To all who read and gaze upon the material between these covers we say, "May it remind you ever of the best years of your lives—these four years here at old Presbyterian."

THE BLUE STOCKING. student weekly newspaper, is one of the most unusual and newsiest little college papers in the United States. Its makeup is of the circus style, the most daring of all make-ups, and its news and editorial columns buzz with vivacity.

The Presbyterian College weekly, nationally recognized for its high standards, presents the campus news in a light, pleasing style, keeping it informative with the accent on college interest.

It has won All-American Superior rating by the Associated Collegiate Press nine times in forty-three judging contests, a record among small colleges. Once it was rated one of the ten best college newspapers in America, and in 1942, one of the seven best, regardless of size.

Colleges and Universities

EIGHT MEMBERS of the Senior Class were chosen this year to represent Presbyterian College in the 1951 edition of "Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities," a publication of outstanding students. The publication is edited cooperatively by six hundred American colleges and universities.

Leadership in extra-curricular activities, high scholarship, and good character are the bases upon which students are selected.

"Who's Who" serves a four-fold purpose: as a commendation to a student for his success in college, as a recommendation to the business world, as a standard measurement for students, and as an incentive for students to get the most out of their college careers.

Selected for 1951 were: Harry Shuler Dent, Walter Gooch, Ronald E. Johnston, David Maxwell, Sidney Maxwell, David W. A. Neville, Jr., Travis B. Stevenson, Jr., and Gus H. Watt.

THE PRESBYTERIAN College chapter of Blue Key, national honorary leadership fraternity, dropped its completely honorary status this year and lit up a peace pipe to restore good relations between Presbyterian and her arch sports rival, Wofford College.

Peace negotiations were successful, and Blue Key gained the respect and admiration of the student body as a real leadership group.

Founded at PC in 1932, Blue Key sets forth the following principles as its purpose: "In order that, through the organized effort among student leaders in American colleges and universities,

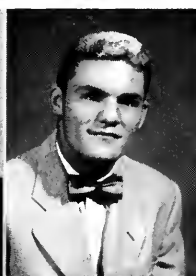

"(1) The belief in God will be perpetuated and intensified, and the government of the United States will be supported and defended.

"(2) An ambition for intellectual attainment and desire to serve college and fellows will be fostered among students.

"(3) Student problems may be studied, student life may be enriched, and the progress and best interests of the institutions in which the organization is formed may be stimulated and promoted."

THE COLLEGIAN is Presbyterian College's literary magazine, presenting its readers with light and serious fiction and non-fiction literature. Equally as inviting to the reader's eyes, however, is The Collegian's attractive makeup, its illustrations, and its baffling, but artistic covers, all which lend a modernistic air to the magazine.

It is published semi-annually, with all the work coming from the creative minds of PC students, except for guest articles.

The Collegian reappeared on the PC campus last year after an absence of eight years over the war period. It was revived by Mr. George Reeves' creative writing class in 1949, and was carried on this year by the editors, interested students, and Professor John Stevenson, faculty advisor.

stimulate student interest in world affairs and to promote better understanding among nations.

Great strides were made by the club this year. Its bi-monthly meetings, which featured addresses by informed authorities, student forums, and movies on current world events, were regarded as most enlightening and informative, as was Political Emphasis Week, the highlight of IRC activities.

The purpose of the club is to stimulate interest in athletics and to present awards for sports participation. Every year the club raises money through concession stand sales to present block letters, sweaters, and gold P's to Block P winners. The awards are presented at an annual banquet.

Under the able leadership of Walter Gooch, the club this year was one of the most active of recent years. Senior members of the football squad were presented handsome leather jackets and gold P's.

THE PAN-HELLENIC Council, composed of representatives from all six national social fraternities, serves as the governing body of the Greek-letter brotherhoods at Presbyterian College.

The Council draws up rules for the conduct of rushing and pledging by the fraternities and also sponsors several formal balls featuring top-flight orchestras.

This year the Council functioned smoothly under the competent leadership of Presidents Ray Williams and Alfred Beckum. The latter succeeded Williams to the presidency upon Williams' graduation in January. ALPHA SIGMA PHI Fraternity was founded on the campus of Yale University on December 6, 1845 by Louis Manigault, of Charleston, S. C., and two of his friends. The nation's tenth oldest national Greek letter social fraternity has grown and prospered during its more than a century-old history. Holding high a good name in man or woman, the fraternity seeks to foster scholarship and friendship in a brotherhood of gentlemen.

The Alpha Psi Chapter here on the campus, formerly Eta Chapter of Alpha Kappa Pi, was established in 1923. The consolidation of Alpha Kappa Pi with Alpha Sigma Phi in 1946 brought the number of chapters to seventy-three.

THE KAPPA ALPHA Order was founded at Washington College in December, 1865 while Robert E. Lee was president of that institution. Lee's gracious and knightly life is enshrined forever in the fraternity's customs, and the ideals and aims of the founders were largely influenced by him.

Although a charter member of the National Interfraternity Council, Kappa Alpha is by tradition a Southern fraternity, whose aim has been to maintain and preserve the high traditions, ideals, manners, and customs of the Southern gentlemen.

PI KAPPA ALPHA Fraternity, founded at the University of Virginia in 1863 by seven soldiers of the Southern Army, is a southern-born fraternity which has spread all over the United States and Canada. However, most of its strength still lies in the South where its ideals, principles, and precepts were drawn up.

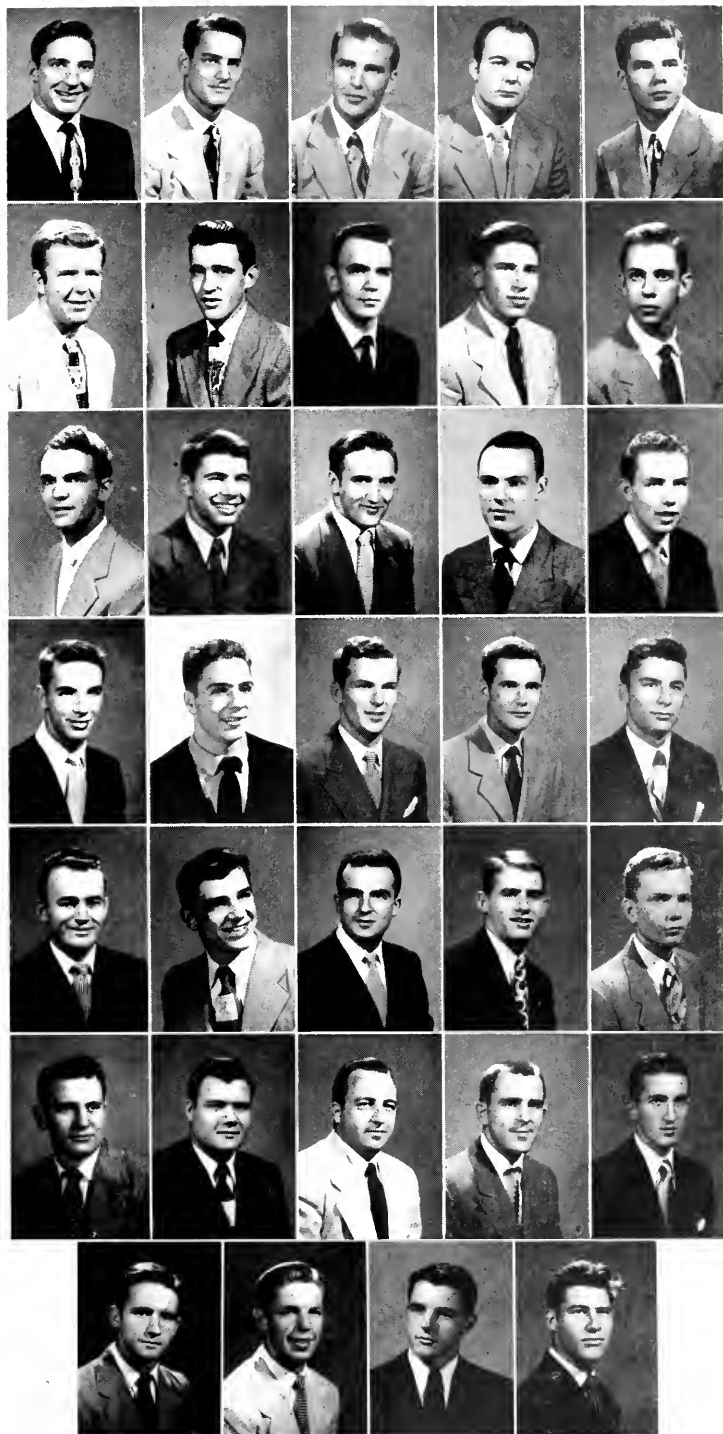

The fraternity strives to weld its members into a deep bond of affection, spreading its radiance of character, love, and fellowship into every heart. Pi Kappa Alpha is the ninth largest fraternity in the nation in total membership, and it boasts 103 active chapters.

THE SIGMA NU Fraternity was founded at Virginia Military Institute, Lexington, Virginia, in 1868. Rich in the traditions of the Southland, the Alpha Chapter fostered those high ideals which have been the back-bone of the fraternity, and have been the incentive for building a Greek-letter brotherhood whose purpose it is to promote Chris-

Hosemen Break Even on Rough Ten-game Schedule

By Severn Somerville

PAC SAC SPORTS EDITOR

PRE-SEASON experts figured Presbyterian College, playing one of the roughest small college schedules in the nation, would do exceptionally well to break even over its 10-game sked for 1950. The Blue Stockings did exactly this, rolling to victories over Furman, Western Carolina, Erskine, Catawba, and their Bronze Derby rival, Newberry. They bowed before five other foes—powerful Clemson, Davidson, The Citadel, Appalachian, and Wofford—three of whom were Southern Conference teams, one notch above Presbyterian's small college status.

Coach Lonnie McMillian and his two new assistants, End Coach Gene Lorendo and Line Coach Sid Varney, depended upon expert conditioning, experience, and a fighting spirit characteristic of all PC grid teams in the past to carry the Stockings through their giant-like schedule. And again the Stockings gained national fame with their unique 10-second backfield stars—Gooch, Fleming, Weingartner, Jackson, Cate, Dodd, and McCutcheon. Also Quarterback "Lefty" Harper won acclaim as one of the nation's top passers, completing well over 50 per cent of his heaves to stellar ends Kirven, Wheeler, and John Harper. Up front in the line stalwarts like Weir, Neely, Starnes, and Pierce consistently stood out with neat blocking and terrific tackling.

At the end of the schedule, post-season honors were handed out to several members of the team by sportswriters and coaches. "Bozo" Weir won a second team Little All-American berth and third team All-State. Also appearing on the All-State list were third teamers Co-Capt. Gooch, Kirven, and Harper. Co-Capt. Starnes, Fleming, Wheeler, and Neely all won All-State honorable mention. Kirven, Harper, and Neely won Little All-American honorable mention.

Hunk tries against F. U.

GREENVILLE, SEPT. 15—Lightning struck twice in the same place for the second year as the electric bolts of Presbyterian College's super-charged football team defeated Furman, 13-12, in Sirmine Stadium tonight. It was the worst shock the Hurricane team had suffered in two decades.

Coach Lonnie McMillian's capable and courageous Blue Stockings dealt Furman a stunning blow with their 20-13 victory last year, but this time the Hurricanes were supposed to have been an overwhelming favorite with a better team in the newly-installed Split-T system under new coaches.

The victory, achieved in lightning strokes on touchdown passes from Quarterback "Lefty" Harper's sharp passing arm to End Joe Kirven and Back "Kilo" Watts in the second half, was decided ultimately by the margin of the extra point which Bud Neely made with a perfect placement after the first TD.

Furman's favored Hurricanes roared to two quick TD's in the first period on sustained drives. However, the loose ball-handling and the hard charges and alertness of the Stocking forward wall held the home team scoreless from then on. After a halftime talk, the Hosemen marched back on the field with new vigor and determination, and turned gloom into glory.

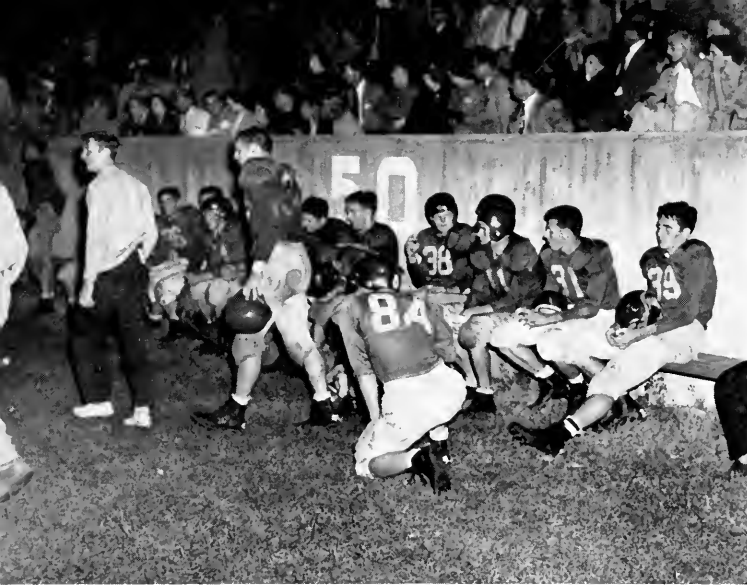

Two linemen, End Luke Wheeler and Center Bob Pierce, set up both PC scores by falling on loose ovals after linemen like Weir, Neely, and Kirven had jarred the Furman backfield loose. Wheeler turned in the star performance of the night, recovering several fumbles he himself accounted for.

The game was played in Greenville's Sirmine Stadium before 13,500 fans.

Mighty Tigers Rip Hose 55-0

CLEMSON, SEPT. 23—Clemson's Tigers, with their eyes peeled on national recognition and a post-season bowl appearance, turned what looked to be a tight ball game into a 55-0 rout here tonight when their dream backfield—Cone, Calvert, Matthews, and Wyndham—finally wore down an out-manned Presbyterian team after a deadlocked first quarter.

The Tigers, manned with some of their best material in their football history, ran wild in the second quarter, piling up a 35-0 lead before halftime. After the half the blood-thirsty Tigers added another 20 points in racking up their first win of the season.

But the Presbyterian Hosemen proved game to the end. Their backs—Gooch, Dodd, Fleming, Watts, and Weingartner—picked up good ground yardage but could never shake loose for paydirt. Late in the fourth frame the Presbyterians scored on a 20-yard pass from Aerialist "Lefty" Harper to Back Joe Dodd who ran another 30 to cross the double stripes. However, a holding penalty called the play back and nullified the lone PC score.

Harper's effective heaving—12 out of 21 attempts to Ends Joe Kirven and John Harper—was the show for the night. The tosses netted 150 yards through the air for the losers. Another standout performance was the line play of the Presbyterians in the first quarter when they held the Tiger backs intact.

The game was played in Memorial Stadium at Clemson before some 20,000 football fans.

CULLOWHEE, N. C., SEPT. 30—The lightning ground attack of Presbyterian College's Blue Stockings caught fire here tonight as the South Carolinians romped to a 21-6 victory over Western Carolina Teachers College. Presbyterian's fleet backs rolled over the turf for a total of 273 running yards. They racked up 17 first downs, compared to 10 for the North Carolina squad.

Halfbacks George Fleming and Hollis Cate were the big guns that boomed in the Presbyterian running attack. Fleming accounting for 101 yards, while Cate ran for 81 yards and six points.

The two other Stocking scores were made by Fullback Walter Gooch on a 10-yard spurt, and End Joe Kirven on a nine-yard pass from "Lefty" Harper. Bud Neely converted all three extra points. The lone WCTC tally came in the second period when Hamilton tossed to White for 35 yards and six points.

The Presbyterian College scoring machine bogged down deep in Catamount territory on several occasions as the Catamount linemen put up a stiff fight in the mud against the fleet feet of PC's ten-second backs. Gooch, Cate, and Fleming carried the brunt of the Stocking ground attack, while Harper continued his bull's-eye passing with eight completions out of 16 attempts for 53 air yards.

All-State Tackle "Bozo" Weir enhanced his Little All-America chances, looming as a giant on defense for Presbyterian. Also standing out for the Hosemen in the line were Ends Bud Neely and Ogletree and Guards Atkinson and Starnes.

The game was staged in the WCTC Stadium in Cullowhee before a slim crowd of 3,000 fans on a wet and muddy field.

Wildcats Taste Revenge- Whip Luckless Hose 24-0

CLINTON, OCT. 7—Davidson College's passing ace, Auburn Lambeth, hit his receivers for three touchdown passes here tonight and set up the fourth score to trounce their Presbyterian rivals from South Carolina 24-0 before 3,000 fans.

It was sweet revenge for the Wildcats, who were upset last year by the Blue Stockings 24-7 at their Homecoming game. The North Carolina Presbyterians racked up 17 first downs to 11 for the Stockings, outplaying them on the ground and in the air. But the Stockings' two passing quarterbacks, Harper and Weldon, put up a stiff fight in the aerial department. They completed five of 13 passes for 80 yards. Lambeth tossed for 93 air yards in six completions, but three of his heaves were good for six-pointers.

The Wildcats spread out their scoring sprees, hitting for one in each period. Their ground attack rolled up 238 yards, but could not break through the Stocking defenses for long TD runs. On the other hand, the Stocking offensive, lacking its usual vigor, could only roll for 134 yards. Two consistent runners, Gooch and Fleming, led the PC attack.

Several times the Stockings penetrated deep into Wildcat territory, but the drives fell before a stout Davidson defense that was keyed for the battle. Playing prominent defensive roles for PC were Pierce, Sasser, and Neely.

At the game's end, both Davidson coaches had particular praise for their club, describing the game as their "best of the year."

Blue Stocking Backs Outfly Fleet 30-6

A P. C. back gets it

CLINTON, OCT. 14—Presbyterian College unleashed its lightning-like ten-second backs on the high-spirited Flying Fleet of Erskine here tonight on Johnson Field to run wild on a 30-6 scoring spree before a Homecoming Day crowd. Two Stocking fleet-footers—George Fleming and Kirby Jackson—highlighted the night's play with dazzling dashes of 101 and 93 yards respectively to paydirt as PC fans stood to cheer.

Jackson provided the opening thrill of the game in the first quarter after a long goal-line stand by the Hose-men. The flashy scatback rocketed off right tackle and hipped his way past the Erskine secondary into open air and a 93-yard run to glory. At halftime the Stockings led 7-0 in a tight ball game.

Then suddenly midway the third quarter Guard Frank Honea smashed through the Erskine defenses to block an attempted pass. Co-Captain Starnes, a 190-pound guard, tucked the ball away and ambled 43 yards to the second score. Shortly afterwards, Ends Neely and Kirven trapped an Erskine back for a safety and two more points.

Scatback Joe Weingartner shone brilliantly to wind up the third quarter with a 25-yard right end scoot to paydirt. Then early in the final canto the flaming Fleming took a handoff from Back Walter Gooch standing one yard inside the goal, weaved and bobbed till he came to the last two men, then poured on the speed and left them to return the Erskine punt 101 yards for the final six-pointer of the night.

Outstanding lineup performances were turned in by Ends Wheeler, Kirven, Tackle Weir, and Guard Atkinson.

SPARTANBURG, OCT. 21—A fumble, three pass interceptions, and the terrific plunging of Fullback Bob McLellan all contributed to the defeat of Presbyterian College here tonight 28-7 at the hands of Wofford College in one of South Carolina's bitterest rivalries.

The Terriers, operating without seven of their regulars, staved off four first half thrusts deep into their territory by the Stockings and won going away with four second half TD's. They capitalized on Stocking miscues and desperation heaves through the air to pour on the heat in their last half victory.

Presbyterian couldn't find the scoring punch to push over its first half scoring threats as the Terrier defense stiffened with their backs to the goal. Quarterback Harper piled up good air yardage for PC, and Backs Gooch and Fleming churned out good ground yardage. Gooch's punting toe also contributed to the Stocking fight.

Wofford first scored on a fumbled punt recovered by Varner inside the end zone. Then the Terriers bobbed back in the third period to tally again when Halfback Cheatham intercepted a Harper pass to run it back to the two, where McLellan plunged over for the score. The Presbyterians then launched a 75-yard drive, mixing passes and ground thrusts, which culminated with End Luke Wheeler pulling in a Harper aerial in the end zone for the lone PC score. Neely then converted. A brilliant Wofford pass defense stole two more Stocking passes and set up the two other scores.

Line standouts for the Stockings were Weir, Kirven, and Neely. The game was played before 5,000 fans on Snyder Field at Wofford.

Bulldogs Clip Hose 7-0 in Tight Battle

ORANGEBURG, OCT. 27 —A keyed up Presbyterian College football eleven clamped down on highly favored Citadel here this afternoon at the Orangeburg County Fair game to hold the Bulldogs to a seven-point victory in an outstanding defensive game. The game was staged before 7,500 overflowing fans amid the mirth and merri-ment of one of the state's largest fair crowds.

The Citadel managed to push across the telling score early in the game after Halfback Bobby Carter returned a short punt 20 yards to the PC five to set up the score. Halfback Rudy Wilcox then skirted right end after several line plunges for five yards and the winning margin, falling just inside the double stripes.

From then on both teams fought on even terms, both penetrating deep into scoring position, but each time both defenses rising brilliantly to stem the threats. Presbyterian threw two good scares into the Bulldog aggregation when they moved deep into Citadel territory. In the second period the Stockings drove to the 11 after recovering a cadet miscue on the 26. Gooch, Fleming, and Weingartner spearheaded the drive, which bogged down on the 11 when a final heave fell incomplete. Another mild PC threat was spiked in the last period when a cadet intercepted a Harper pass, after the Hosemen had moved to the 32. The cadets missed another score by inches late in the game when the stubborn PC defense held them on the goal for four downs.

Defensive standouts for the Stockings were Tedder, Neely, Sheriff, Weir, Jernigan, Honea, Lindsay, and Starnes.

Fleet-footed Presbyterians Race to 27-14 Win Over Catawba

SALISBURY, N. C., Nov. 4 - Three lightning-fast touch-downs early in the third period put Presbyterian College out front for keeps here tonight as Catawba's Indians had their Homecoming festivities spoiled by the running of Fullback Walter Gooch and Halfbacks George Fleming and Joe Weingartner.

The Blue Stockings, riding on the fast heels of their famed ten-second backfield, erased a 0-7 deficit with their three lightning-like thrusts into paydirt to put the game on ice. Both teams scored once more to make the final count 27-14. Quarterback Harper's sensational passing again provided the night's aerial show, while defensive stalwarts Neely, Atkinson, and Wheeler held the ever-threatening Indians at bay.

Catawba scored first midway the second quarter on an 85-yard zig-zag punt return by Pickett. Then after the halftime rest, Presbyterian registered three quick TD's within a few minutes. On the third play of the second half, Harper shoved the oval out to Gooch who took off for a 75-yard dash to score. Upon receiving the ball again, Weingartner caught a short pass from Harper, faked the safety man with a complete twist on the sideline, and raced across the goal standing up.

Fleming made it three in a row minutes later when he plowed off right tackle, slanted to the right, and sped 51 yards to score. Catawba bounded back with passes to score early in the final frame. The Presbyterians then struck right back when Weingartner and Fleming reeled off runs of 33 and 36 yards to move the ball to the four. From there Joe Dodd bolted right through the middle for the final six-pointer.

Appalachian Avalanche Buries Blue Hose 34-7

An Indian rolls Fleming

BOONE, N. C., Nov. 9—Powerful Appalachian kept its undefeated record intact this afternoon by defeating Presbyterian College's Blue Stockings 34-7.

The Mountaineers scored in every period—on the ground, by air, and on a blocked punt—but even so the final count failed to tell the terrific battle put up by Presbyterian. Appalachian gained 227 yards on the ground to 137 for the Stockings, but the passing of Quarterbacks Harper and Weldon outdistanced the victors 136 to 106 yards.

Halfback Jack Groce, a slashing runner, paced the Mountaineer attack with several long runs, one for 70 yards for the first TD. For PC it was the running of Halfback Fleming and the terrific tossing of Harper and Weldon which provided the spark. The lone Stocking tally came in the fourth quarter when Fleming tucked in a flat pass from Weldon, eluded one tackler, then headed down the sidelines unmolested for the double stripes.

Appalachian scored again in the second period on a disputed pass play. After a halftime rest, they came back stronger, marching on to three more TD's, two by land and another by a blocked punt.

Presbyterian's defenses looked spasmodically good and bad. Standing out in this department were linemen Neely, who was in on 50 per cent of the tackles, Wheeler, Starnes, Sheriff, and Jernigan.

CLINTON, Nov. 23—Presbyterian College turned three long touchdown runs by Halfbacks Hollis Cate, George Fleming, and Ted Sasser into a 20-6 victory over Newberry College, an old-time rival, here today to win possession of the prized Bronze Derby.

The game, the feature Thanksgiving attraction in South Carolina, was attended by some 3,500 turkey-filled fans here today in Bailey Memorial Stadium. The crowd saw a tight see-saw game broken up in the final half when an 80-yard pass interception runback and a 71-yard punt return put the game in the bag for Presbyterian as the 1950 season faded out. At halftime the score was 7-6, with PC on top.

Presbyterian's Stockings jumped off to an early lead when Fleming returned an Indian punt 41 yards to the Newberry 25. On the next play Cate tore off left tackle and danced his way across the goal. Newberry then rebounded in the second period with a long simulated drive which culminated in a short line crash for the TD.

Toward the end of the third period, Fleming pulled another sensational punt return, this time going all the way—71 yards to score. With time passing rapidly, the Indians became frantic and began tossing desperate heaves into the air. Alert Ted Sasser pulled one out of the ozone in the fourth canto, and behind brilliant blocking, scampered 80 yards to ice the game for PC.

Offensive plugs for PC in its ground attack were Cate with 88 yards and Ronnie Johnston with 34. On defense line play by Sophomores Jernigan, Walker, Leslie, Harper, and Sheriff paid off in holding down the Indian attack.

FRESHMAN FOOTBALL

SMALL, but fired with spunk and spirit, Presbyterian College's freshman football team salvaged one victory out of three games this season after taking off enough time from practicing against the varsity to organize some standard signals. The Baby Blue Hose tripped North Greenville Junior College 20-6 in gaining their lone victory of a short schedule.

South Georgia Junior College turned the Anklets back in their first outing, 28-6, while Wofford's JV's wound up the season by defeating the PC freshmen 19-0.

The freshmen, coached by J. B. Copeland and Burl Allen, spent most of their time learning opposition signals to run against the varsity in prepping the Stockings for their run against a tough ten-game slate. Week after week they scrimmaged the PC varsity, making good showings on many occasions.

Leading the Anklets in backfield play were four outstanding prospects for good varsity positions next year. The backfield stars were Red Huggins at quarterback, Bootsie Cox at fullback, and Joe Austin and Curtis Freeman at the halves. Up front it was the consistent lineplay of Tackle Don Barton, Ends Bobby Matthews and Hubert Turner, and Guards Vernon Lake and Harold Jernigan that sparked the freshman forward wall.

GOLF

GOLF returned to the Presbyterian College sports scene in 1950 and again this year after a long absence from the campus. And the game returned with a boom, as the PC golfers this year drove and putted their way to five victories in eight matches. The golfers dropped two matches to strong Clemson and another to Furman, whom they trounced earlier in the season.

Captain W. J. McBrayer, number one man on the Blue Hose team, led the golfers again this season with medalist honors. Other Hosemen capable of shooting in the low 70's along with McBrayer were Smokey Jackson, Mike Sholar, Bob Edens, Sonny Clay, and Paul Moore.

The PC linksmen bowled over Wofford twice, Newberry twice, and Furman once in gaining their successful season's record of five wins and three losses. All home matches were played on the Lakeside Country Club course between Clinton and Laurens.

Praise and honor such as the above was heaped upon Coach Gene Lorendo's high-scoring basketball quintet this season as the eagers earned national recognition despite the fact that their team height averaged less than six feet. However, the fast-break, keyed to its highest pitch, was employed by the Blue Hose to compensate for this handicap.

The Blue Hose ended their seasonal play with a 17-9 record against a slate of strong cage opponents. And seeded number one in the Little Four tournament, by virtue of their 5-1 record against Happy smiles from Hawkins, Groninger and Blewett as they display the "Little Four" Championship Trophy.

Little Four competition, the Hosemen lived up to their rating by bringing home the championship with brilliant victories—103-60 and 102-100—over Newberry and Wofford to climax the most thrilling basketball campaign in PC history.

To add to their laurels, as Little Four and State champs, PC's Hosemen wound up the season with an 81.7 average per game, a new state record. All in all, the Hosemen set six new state records. These include: 1-) a new high average of 81.7 points per game; 2-) a new South Carolina scoring record of 2,123 points for the season; 3-) the state's top single game scorer—Dwight Groninger—with 41 points in one night; 4-) South Carolina's only team to score 100 or more points in three games; 5-) the scoring record for the Little Four tournament, 205 points in two games; 6-) and winner of the highest scoring game in the state, a 102-100 victory over Wofford for the Little Four Championship.

Individual honors were also handed out to the championship Blue Hose basketball team this season. It was, however, teamwork and team spirit that coupled to bring Presbyterian its greatest team in history, and not just individual play alone. A good example of this was illustrated time and time again when the Hosemen survived numerous injuries and sicknesses to pull through with their brilliant record.

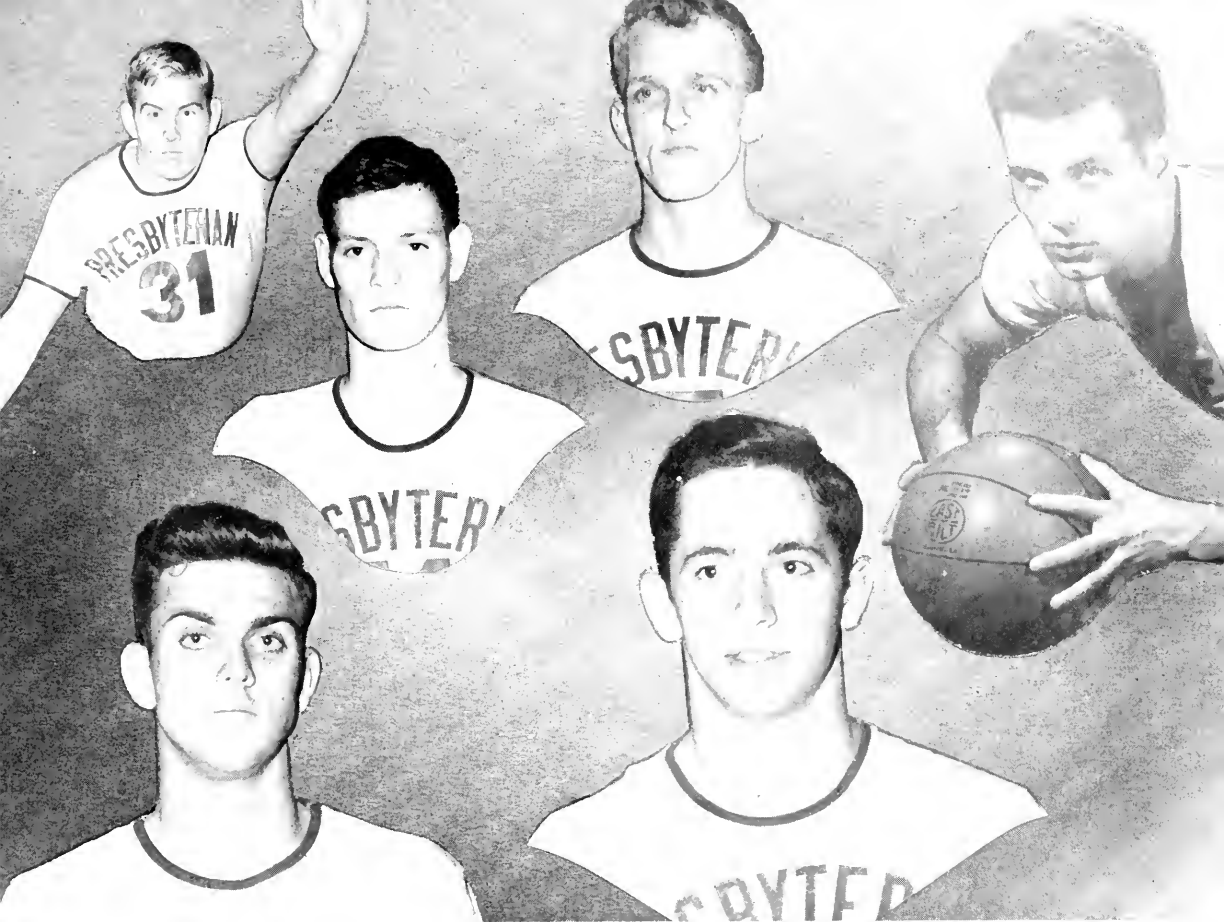

Top honors on the team again this year went to Captain Willie Groninger, the state's second highest scorer. Groninger won election to the All-State team for the third year in a row and also won the captaincy of the All-Little Four tournament team. Guard Bill Blewett, who ranked one notch behind Groninger in the scoring race, won top man on the All-State second team and also a first team Little Four berth. And another honor man on the team was Forward Lew Hawkins, who, although hampered all season with the consequences of a broken thumb and sprained ankle, came through for a third team berth on the All-State team and a second team position on the Little Four team.

Other bright lights in the regular lineup were Center Kay Hill, with his hook shots and all-round defensive play, Guard Paul Nye with his fancy dribbling and fast breaks, and Guard Skip Skinner with his long shots and consistent floor play.

Valuable substitute roles were played by Kirby Jackson, Bill Carter, Ed Thompson, Ken Horn, and Hank Hill. Most of these men were also called on for starting roles, all playing plenty of basketball from beginning to end.

TRACK

Walter Gooch, High Scoring Ace

WITH their eyes peeled on their first South Carolina Intercollegiate track title in over a decade, Presbyterian College's thin clad trackmen began the track season clipping off their practice sessions at an accelerated pace. The Blue Stockings, though shallow in depth, are loaded this season with their best track material in years. And experts are predicting a heated scrap between Presbyterian and Clemson in the state meet here on Johnson Field in May. In their first dual meet, Clemson's Tigers edged the Stockings 66¹/₂-64¹/₂. However, the Clemson cindermen, strongest in field events, are expected to meet keen competition here from other state teams in the meet, while PC, strongest in the dashes and running events, is not expected to give much ground.

Leading the PC tracksters again this year are the colorful, lightning-fast relay runners—Walter Gooch, Ken McCutcheon, George Fleming, and Tommy Jordan, a newcomer in place of Blake Watts. Last season the Stocking winged-footers broke the state record in finishing one step behind Carolina in the state meet. The previous year they won the relay title. This year they are expected to run away from state competition with Jordan's additional speed.

The outstanding individual performer on the team is Walter Gooch, PC's jack-of-all-trades and top point-maker for the past two years. He performs on the relay team, in the dashes, and in the field with the javelin, shot put, in the broad jump, and the pole vault.

Jordan, last year's freshman champion on PC's state title frosh team, is the state's top dash man in the 100 and 220 runs. Behind him are McCutcheon and Gooch. In the 440-yard dash, George Fleming,

A NEW FEATURE in South Carolina collegiate sports circles—night baseball—was ushered in this season by Presbyterian College's Blue Sox. Besides this new mark, the Soxmen of 1951 had something else to be proud of—a 10-1 record, one of their best in several years, and third place in state standings. This was the record the Blue Sox had written into the scorebooks as the PaC SaC went to press the first of May. Remaining on the schedule were two games each with Parris Island, Newberry, Wofford, and Erskine.

The team this season, guided by Coach Sid Varney, former star at UNC, was an improved ball club over last year. The Soxmen added a few new men to the lineup, utilized another year's experience, and all chipped in a contribution to team spirit to clip 10 foes, four straight at the outset of the season.

Most valuable player on the team again this year was Pitcher Lum Edwards whose impressive record showed six wins against one defeat and a .395 batting average at the halfway mark. Playing in the field when not hurling, he was the team's top long distance hitter. The most consistent hitter on the squad was Rightfielder Kirby Jackson. At mid-season his batting mark had moved to .425.

Backing up Edwards on the mound were a host of capable pitchers—Bill Blewett, Kelly Borgh, Tommy Lide, Ankey Rowe, Kay Hill, J. D. Currie, Steve Von Harten, and Bobby Matthews. Behind the plate for the Sox catching the throws were Ralph DesChamps, Burl Allen, and Harold Dunton.

The PC infield formed a tight net against opposition this year with a freshman, Don Hattaway, at first, Skip Skinner at second, Frog Weldon at shortstop, and Byron King at third. Hattaway proved valuable at the initial sack and at the plate, while Weldon's throwing arm again sparked the infield play. Powers also at the plate were King and Weldon, two veteran baseballers.

In the outfield Presbyterian boasted a hard-hitting trio of fly-chasers. Jackson, in rightfield, led the team hitting, while Regis Kimsey, and Ankey Rowe, the other two regular fielders, provided plenty of power with their bats. A utility fielder, Sam Floyd, playing his first year with the Sox, also batted over .300 in substitute roles.

TENNIS

STATE CHAMPIONS FOR THE ELEVENTH TIME

ANOTHER South Carolina Intercollegiate Tennis Championship—the eleventh in a row—was won again this year by Presbyterian College's talented tennis team, undefeated in state play for the past 11 years. The Blue Hose racqueteers finished their 1951 season with 15 victories and six losses. Most of these losses came at the hands of some of the Southeast's top tennis teams.

After winding up their successful seasonal play, the Hosemen swept to another tennis title when they waded through all state opposition in the South Carolina Intercollegiate Tennis Tournament here at PC in May. The team was led in victory by Frank Spears, who outstroked all opponents to win the singles title in his junior year.

The team was coached by Coach Jim Leighton, professional at the Wee Burn Beach Club in Connecticut. A Dartmouth alumnus, Leighton is credited with much of the success scored by the Hosemen in the past two seasons.

Frank Spears, S. C. Singles Champion

This year's most prominent player was Frank Spears, state singles champion and number one man on the PC team. Spears won many court victories for the Blue Hose this season with his consistent playing. He has won numerous tournaments in South Carolina and was playing his third year for PC this season.

If a most valuable award were to be given to a member of this year's team, it would probably go to Captain Amador Flynt, team player-manager. Flynt provided plenty of spark and hustle for the team and also gained victories in singles and doubles matches for the Hose.

Don Warthen, playing his last year for the Hose, was PC's second seeded player in seasonal play. Like Spears, he is also a former South Carolina junior champion. Following Warthen was Bill Toole, a sophomore star with a hard stroke and fierce backhand. Ken Thompson, another sophomore, proved valuable for the team in the number four position, while a freshman find, Bill Bradley, scored many victories in the fifth spot. Seeded sixth and seventh on the squad were Ed Montgomery, a sophomore, and Joe Dodd, a junior and runner-up in the Mid-Southern Junior Tournament. Other players contributing victories to the successful season were Jimmie Williams, Righton Lyndon, and Bo Beaumont.

In the doubles department, Coach Leighton juggled his lineup from match to match. His most consistent combinations proved to be, however, Spears and Warthen, Montgomery and Dodd, and Bradley and Toole. In matches of slight competition, Coach Leighton substituted freely into his lineup, moving his number two, three, and four players up to match the top men on the opposition squad.

The annual state tournament was held again this year on PC's Callaway courts with Presbyterian winning its eleventh straight tennis crown in a walk.
